UNORTHODOX COLLEGES.

At the recent meeting of the Troy conference at Pittsfield, Mass., the Rev. Dr. Strong of the Drew Theological seminary said that Harvard had gone far astray, and the money of old John Harvard was not being used for the purpose he in-tended. Andover had only two men, Phelps and Parks, who are orthodox. At Yale they were no better than they should be, and there was only one sound man at the Union Theological institution.

NOTES.

Rev. Dr. Phillips has been elected asistant bishop of Pennsylvania. There is an effort being made to have a convention of all the Protestantized Roman Catholics in the United States in New York during the summer, and establish what are termed "Reformed Catholic churches" in all the principal cities of the country where none exist. One of the German papers states that "at Vienna last year no less than 363 Jows became Christians;" and another paper tells us that "at no period since the first century have conversions from Judaism to Christianity been so frequent as they are at present." THE BANQUET.

Gainesville excels in many things, and not the least of these, in things social. When it was known that a banquet would be prepared for our guests, it was underand grand scale. The banquet was prepared at Perry's opera-house, which was handsomely decorated for the occasion. There were eight tables extending across the hall, fairly groaning under everything that was good to eat, and having a seating capacity of 650. The banquet was prepared by Joe Cottraux of this city, and would have done credit to the famous New York caterer, Delmonico. The banqueters were made up latics of course, and a large number of favored outsiders.
